at 1600 on Thursday 29 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Chilly, with overnight frost in places. Sunshine and showers Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Isolated showers should become fewer and further between during the evening, eventually dying away entirely to leave a dry second half of the night, with clear spells developing. Becoming chilly as a result for many, with frost in rural areas. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Friday:
Another day of sunshine and showers, the showers locally heavy and prolonged in the afternoon given the light wind. Showers tending to mainly affect inland parts of southernmost counties later. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Staying similar into the weekend: sunshine and showers by day, but remaining rather cool with overnight frost in places. Becoming wet and windy through Monday, perhaps with coastal gales.
